SOCIAL MEDIA NEWS

JOIN THE BIRNS TEAM ON FACEBOOK AND TWITTER!

BIRNS, Inc. has launched its amazing new integrated social media program—yet another way to keep your finger on the pulse of breaking company and industry news. Check out cutting-edge technology, dynamic in-use shots of our new products, and what the team at BIRNS is up to, from R&D and new certifications to advanced testing techniques.

We owe much of BIRNS' half century of success to honest feedback from the industry, and now our social media platforms facilitate immediate exchanges between you, the BIRNS team and other industry experts. We want to hear from you, so join the discussion by 'liking' us on Facebook and following us on Twitter—simply click on the icons on the left. You'll be in the running for great product drawings and contests, not to mention being the first on the block to hear (and comment on) BIRNS news as it happens!
